GIVE WITH A SMILE

There's a soldier in France over there,
Who has plenty of hardships to bear.

A pal or a brother,
The pride of his mother,
We owe him the best kind of care.
Since America's warring began
He is bearing himself like a man.
He's risking his life

In this horrible strife,
Let's help him as much as we can!

CHORUS

Then give, give, give with a smile!
Give money and give all the while;
And while you are giving please don't make it small,
Remember the soldier is giving his all.
Then give, give, give till you're sore—
And then again give up some more!

There's a sailor somewhere on the sea,
Ever watching for U-boats is he.
 Though war is appalling,
 His country was calling;
He's fighting for you and for me.
He is cruising the Hun to destroy
And our forces across to convoy.
 He's plowing the foam
 To protect us at home:—
Let's do all we can for the boy!

CHORUS

Then give, give, give with a smile!
Give money and give all the while;
And while you are giving please don't make it small,
Remember the sailor is giving his all.
Then give, give, give till you're sore,
And then again give up some more!

The above may be used in campaigns of the Red Cross, Y.M.C.A., K. of C., and others of a similar nature. The following version of the chorus may be used in campaigns for Liberty Bonds and War Saving Stamps.

CHORUS

Then buy, buy, buy with a smile,
 Buy } Liberty Bonds } all the while.
 Buy up to the limit, please don't make it small,
 Remember the {soldier} is risking his all.
 Then buy, buy, buy till you're sore,
 And then again buy up some more!
